Form WH-381 Revised January 2009
If your leave does qualify as FMLA leave, you will have the following responsibilities while on FMLA leave: only check blanks that apply.

Benefits

Contact 303-860-4200 (press 3) arrangements to continue to make your share of the premium payments on your health insurance to maintain benefits while you are on leave. You have a minimum 30-day (or, indicate longer period, if applicable) grace period in which to make premium payments. If payment is not made timely, your group health insurance may be canceled, provided we notify you in writing at least 15 days before the date that your health coverage will lapse. Or, at our option, we may pay your share of the premiums during FMLA leave, and recover those payments from you upon your return to work.

You will be required to use your available paid sick, vacation, and other leave during your FMLA absence. This means that you will receive your paid leave and the leave will also be considered protected FMLA leave and counted against your FMLA leave entitlement.

Due to your status within the company, you are considered a 'key employee' as defined in the FMLA. As a 'key employee,' restoration to employment may be denied following FMLA leave on the grounds that such restoration will cause substantial and prolonged economic injury to us. We have not determined that restoring you to employment at the conclusion of FMLA leave will cause substantial and prolonged economic harm to us.

While on leave you will be required to furnish us with periodic reports of your status and intent to return to work every (indicate interval of periodic reports, as appropriate for the particular leave situation).

If the circumstances of your leave change, and you are able to return to work earlier than the date indicated on the reverse side of this form, you will be required to advise us at least two weeks prior to the date you intend to return to work.

If your leave does qualify as FMLA leave you will have the following rights while on FMLA leave:

- You have a right under the FMLA for up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave in a 12-month period calculated as:
  - the calendar year (January – December).
  - a fixed leave year based on ________
  - the 12-month period measured forward from the date of your first FMLA leave usage.
  - a "rolling" 12-month period measured backward from the date of any FMLA leave usage.

- You have a right under the FMLA for up to 26 weeks of unpaid leave in a single 12-month period to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness. This single 12-month period commences on

  - Your health benefits must be maintained during any period of unpaid leave under the same conditions as if you continued to work.
  - You must be reinstated to the same or an equivalent job with the same pay, benefits, and terms and conditions of employment on your return from FMLA-protected leave. (If your leave extends beyond the end of your FMLA entitlement, you do not have a right to return under FMLA.)
  - If you do not return to work following FMLA leave for any reason other than: 1) the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition which would entitle you to FMLA leave; 2) the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a covered servicemember's serious injury or illness which would entitle you to FMLA leave; or 3) other circumstances beyond your control, you may be required to reimburse us for our share of health insurance premiums paid on your behalf during your FMLA leave.
  - If we have not informed you above that you must use accrued paid leave while taking your unpaid FMLA leave entitlement, you have the right to have sick, vacation, and other leave run concurrently with your unpaid leave entitlement. Provided you meet any applicable requirements of the leave policy. Applicable conditions related to the substitution of paid leave are referenced or set forth below. If you do not meet the requirements for taking paid leave, you remain entitled to take unpaid FMLA leave.
